

The Bahnson Buzz

An On-line Publication of the Student Body of Moravian Theological Seminary

January

2009

p. 1 of 3

Pending Ping Pong Tournament By Josh Viste

First to 21 points, need to win by 2. Alternative serves in 5 serve intervals with opposing person serving on game point. Best 2 of 3 games, winner advances. Play opponent as soon as possible and continue as able. Finish by end of semester. Winner receives the traveling ping pong trophy.

[See chart in Canterbury Room to see who you'll play against. Good luck!]

January Recipe: Apple & Celery Soup

Heat 1 oz. of butter and 2 Tbsp. of oil in a large saucepan. Add 4 sliced celery stalks (with leaves), 1 medium sliced onion and 1 sliced carrot and stir for a few minutes. Slice 5 eating apples, including peel and core and add to vegetables. Cook together stirring for a bit. Next add 1 pt. of soup broth and simmer covered for 15 minutes. Strain and season with a pinch of nutmeg, salt and pepper. Before reheating and serving the soup, peel, core and slice another apple and fry in 1 oz. of butter until the slices are soft and golden. Garnish the hot soup with the apple slices and a sprinkling of parsley.

Gathering for Community Meals Resumes

By Hugh Vrablic

Table fellowship will start on THURSDAY Jan. 29th, meeting at 4:30 and dining at 4:45 in the Saal. The night has changed with the hopes that we will have more at the table. The first night will be pizza.

Bring any ideas for themes and let's have fun!

Lehigh Valley Green Building Expo

March 20-22, 2009

Lehigh University

Mountaintop Campus—Iacocca Hall

This is a new 2-day weekend event hosted by the Lehigh Valley Green Builders Forum for the public, businesses & building professionals to learn more about green building practices – what they are & how to find the right product, designer, contractor or builder. By raising awareness & educating consumers, they will be empowered to choose green building products & services in the Valley. There'll be a series of seminars for both contractors & the public.

1. Exhibitors will feature the latest green building products and services
2. Construction professionals will share their expertise on implementing green projects
3. State and local officials will talk about greening our community

Who Should Attend?

- You! -Homeowners
- Commercial & Industrial building owners/operators
- Property managers
- Residential & commercial builders/contractors
- Architects, engineers & other building industry professionals
- Business leaders & environmental professionals
- Elected officials & municipal engineers, planners & facilities managers
- Community-based organizations, educational institutions & advocates
- Developers & area business people
- Others who want to learn more

Learn about available local, state/federal incentives & resources, financial benefits for green building, green construction practices, methods & requirements, and local green building case studies.

[For further information on the Expo, please contact:

expo-info@lvgreenbuilders.org.]

The Bahnson Buzz

January
2009
p. 2 of 3

An On-line Publication of the Student Body of Moravian Theological Seminary

Harmonious To Dwell

Who: People with interest in the songs of the Moravian Church.

What: A gathering of folks who seek to celebrate & embrace Moravian music for new worship settings.

When: Saturday, January 24, 2009 (9:30 A.M. –?)

Where: Moravian Theological Seminary

Bring: $5 for pizza, and your instruments

Contact: HarmoniousToDwell@gmail.com or (770) 826-1341

Harmonious To Dwell is brought to you by David Melby-Gibbons and Matt Gillard

Archaeological Dig in Jerusalem

You're being offered an opportunity to dig in Israel this summer for academic credit. Ramat Rahel, located in Jerusalem on the way to Bethlehem, is an important site for uncovering the history of the Judaic monarchy that ranges from the 8th century BCE through the early Islamic periods. This excavation also provides an exciting opportunity to live in Jerusalem, which is sacred to the 3 monotheistic religions—Judaism, Islam, and Christianity.

Contact Dr. Jason Radine or Dr. Deborah Appler for more info. We hope you can join us this summer!!!

The Bahnson Buzz

January

2009

p. 3 of 3

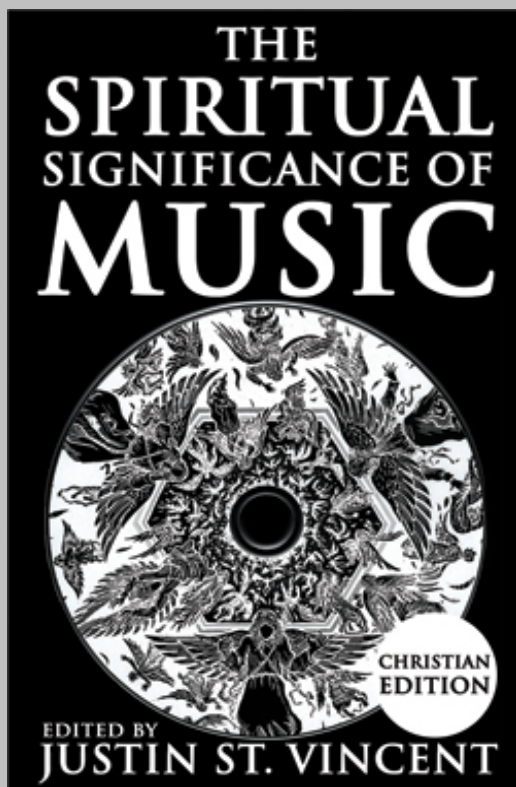

An On-line Publication of the Student Body of Moravian Theological Seminary

Spouse of Seminarian Gets Published!

On January 1st "The Spiritual Significance of Music," edited by Justin St. Vincent, was released online.

It's available (for FREE!)
from Xtreme Music at:
www.xtrememusic.org.

David Melby-Gibbons—spouse of Christie Melby-Gibbons, '09—has an exclusive interview in this new publication which is replete with exclusive interviews on music and spirituality from a vast array of musicians, some whom you may recognize, who are followers of Jesus Christ.

YouTube clip of the month:

Women in Art

watch it at:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nUDIoN-Hxs>

Eat the View: White House Food Garden Petition

Check out this online petition!

“We, the undersigned, are petitioning President-elect Obama to plant a large organic food garden or Victory Garden on the First Lawn with the produce going to the White House kitchen and local food pantries. The White House is "America's House" and should serve as a model at a time of economic and environmental crisis. President-elect Obama would not be breaking with tradition, but returning to it (the White House has had food gardens before) and leading by personal example on global challenges such as food security, climate change, and energy independence.”

(Privacy statement: Your e-mail address will not be shared with any third parties. The petition will be delivered with a collection of heirloom seed packets to President-elect Obama.)

To sign and send in this petition, simply go to:

<http://www.eattheview.org/petition>.

Want to add to The Buzz? Send your ads, photos, personal writing extracts, news, original poetry, etc. to the SEC information secretary: Mia White or to the artistic editor of The Bahnson Buzz: Christie Melby-Gibbons.

THE LATEST ISSUE OF THE BAHNSON BUZZ CAN NOW BE EASILY ACCESSED ON AMOS.